

e-Skills Alliance Malta

Fabianne Ruggier,
Consultant on Human Capital at MITA
Malta Information Technology Agency

Objectives and importance of the policy / initiative

Maximise Synergies

Overcome Limited Resources

Achievements: today and TOMORROW

2010

- Students
- Parents
- Educators
- Career counsellors
- Industry associations

2011

- Discussions across the educational system
- Curricular revisions at the University of Malta

2012

- Piloting an e-Competence Framework with local industry

2013

- Foundation becomes operational
- Fresh strategic plan
- Attract new partners

2014

- Programmes initiated

What have we learned so far?

KEY MESSAGES

THE WHOLE IS GREATER THAN THE SUM OF ITS PARTS

- > Consensus
- > Industry Support
- > Sustain efforts across political changes